

EVENTS - DECEMBER 2016 TO FEBRUARY 2017

Updated December 2016

DECEMBER

Industrial Land and the future of manufacturing Friday 2, Breakfast talk

How do we accommodate industrial uses, essential services, local manufacturers, whilst housing the capital's growing population?

Free / Part of Work programme

Christmas NLA Party and 2016 Roundup Monday 5, Networking event

Networking drinks at a key London venue to bring NLA members and partners together to celebrate a busy year, round up 2016 and update on NLA's plans for 2017.

Invitation-Only / Members only

NY-LON: Working suburbs

Wednesday 7, Video seminar

How are New York and London accommodating the next generation of workers?

Ticketed - Partner Free / Supported by KPF / ASsociate with International programme

Outer London's Transport Hubs: Opportunities for Densification

Wednesday 7, Roundtable

How can transport-led development unlock housing and regeneration in London's 'suburbs' and create sustainable, mixed-use communities in the long term?

Invitation-Only / Part of Transport programme

Where do you work?

Friday 9, Lunchtime talk

Which areas of the capital will change from work to other uses? Where will we work in the future?

Free / Part of Work programme

Capital Idea: The future of work in London

Monday 12, PechaKucha

NLA's NextGen will respond to the WRK|LDN recommendations to the Mayor with a Capital Idea! in an evening of quick fire presentations. What will they propose for the future of work in London?

Ticketed - Member Discount

JANUARY

Café WRK - exploring casual working in London

Friday 13, Lunchtime talk

Investigating the use of cafes, hotel lobbies and public realm as casual workspaces.

Free / Part of Work programme

Air Quality

Friday 20, Breakfast talk

With Sadiq's ambition of 'Zero Carbon by 2050' hot off the press in A City for All Londoners, how is the industry working towards this goal? In this breakfast talk NLA brings together experts working in the problem areas to explore the innovations underway to deliver Sadiq's ambition - can we do it sooner than 2050?

Free / Part of Transport programme

International Working Group

Wednesday 25, Roundtable

Industry experts help shape the NLA international programme and look at the spring 2017 Insight Study, London Global Design Hub.

Invitation-Only / Part of International programme

Don't Move, Improve! Awards Reception

Thursday 26, Networking event

Raise a glass for the winners as we announce this year's awards at the Don't Move, Improve! exhibition and magazine launch.

Invitation-Only

The next London Plan: Big Debate

Monday 30, Evening seminar

The Big Debate invites a wider open debate on the future shape of London and the direction of the new London Plan, which will be a key document in setting the founding principles for building Sadiq's London.

Free / Part of Planning programme

50 years of conservation areas

January TBC, PechaKucha

An evening of quick-fire presentations from those working in London's numerous conservation areas.

Free / Part of Conservation and Retrofit programme

FEBRUARY

Meeting London's school needs

Wednesday 08, Conference

As London faces a dramatic shortage of school places, NLA explores what steps can be taken now to ensure the future demands are met.

Ticketed - Member Discount / Part of Education & Health programme

Barking & Dagenham

February 23, On Location

NLA visits Barking & Dagenham for an in-depth look at upcoming development across this key East London Borough. Conference, networking lunch and tours.

Ticketed - Member Discount

Don't Move, Improve! Open Day

Saturday 25 February, Public Day

A day of home extension advice and inspiration, hearing first-hand from award-winning architects in our talks programme, family events and one-to-one consultation sessions.

Free

NextGen Working Group

February TBC, Roundtable

A year since its inception, this NextGen Working Group brings together a select group of like-minded individuals within the industry to discuss what support the next generation really need and how we work together to deliver it.

Invitation-Only / Part of NextGen programme

Neighbourhood Forums: Community building

February TBC, Breakfast talk

What progress have London's burgeoning neighbourhood forums made, and how are they impacting local policies and the wider development community?

Free

Sounding Board

February TBC, Roundtable

Regular meeting of the New London Sounding Board, established by NLA in April 2011 to provide a single, cross-industry voice that contributes to the debate surrounding major change in the capital and debate key issues the industry is facing.

Invitation-Only